Grant Project Description

Planning grant to define and develop a jail-based MAT program within Loudoun County Adult Detention Center. This initiative is just one, of many, collaborations between Loudoun County Sheriff's Office (LCSO) and the Loudoun County Department of Mental Health, Substance Abuse and Developmental Services (MHSADS); commonly referred to as the Community Services Board, Loudoun County has a strong partnership between the criminal justice entities and human services providers. The planning of a jail based MAT program that includes post-release services will enhance the continuum of strategies already employed within Loudoun County.

Grant Project Description

There is a need to bridge the gap in medication assisted-treatment services once individuals are released from incarceration. Grant funds are needed to provide these services inside and outside of jail. If approved, grant funds will provide an opportunity to form a multidisciplinary team to plan a program for the Newport News Sheriff's Office Jail that can assist in reducing recidivism and improving public safety.
