Grant Project Description

The Action Alliance is requesting funds to provide a trauma-informed, supportive, week long Youth Retreat for underserved youth, centering on LGBTQ and youth of color, ages 17-21 who have experienced sexual violence. In addition, the project will support translating sexual assault materials for Virginia's sexual assault programs into Korean, and for the purchase of language access equipment that will provide translation services for victims who indicate that English is not their first language. The Action Alliance will also be able to loan this equipment to sexual assault crisis centers that may also need to provide such services.

Project Performance to Date (if Continuation)

New project. It is anticipated a total of 15,123 victims will be served through this project.
