

Virginia Department of Criminal Justice Services (DCJS)
Private Security Services Advisory Board (PSSAB) Candidates Bios May 9, 2024

Special Conservator of the Peace (SCOP) Representative - 1 vacancy, 3 candidates

(Current member) Purvis Beanum is a registered SCOP since 2004. He has 46 years of experience in public safety, and more than 30 years of management experience. Mr. Beanum states that he is well-versed in DCJS' regulations as they pertain to private security services, with a particular focus on the SCOP program. This position must be filled with an individual who is currently registered in the SCOP program. He is seeking reappointment as the SCOP Representative.

Michael Adams is an active SCOP registered by DCJS. His experience has been gained through 28 years of being a paramedic and 21 years with his current full-time employer. During his time with Fairfax County Government, he worked as a deputy sheriff before transferring to the Fire and Rescue Department, where he is currently assigned to fire investigations. The current role in the Fire Marshal's Office and as a former member of the Hazardous Materials Response Team as well as past assignments with the Virginia Task Force 1 Urban Search and Rescue Team, have allowed him to gain the necessary experience to meet the qualifications of a committee member. He has a bachelor's degree in emergency management with a minor in Homeland Security. He is seeking appointment as the SCOP Representative.

Burns Noble has been a registered SCOP since January 2022. With a robust background at the Colonial Williamsburg Foundation, he is eager to contribute his expertise to the PSSAB's mission of enhancing regulatory standards and training within the private security services sector.

Throughout his tenure at the Colonial Williamsburg Foundation, he has garnered invaluable experience in ensuring public safety, upholding the law, and fostering positive community relations. In this role, he has honed skills in risk assessment, conflict resolution, and emergency response, all of which are critical assets for effective oversight and regulation within the private security industry. He states he is proficient in security operations and surveillance techniques and has a strong knowledge of relevant laws, regulations, and procedures. He is seeking appointment as the SCOP Representative.

Private Security Services Business Representative (providing security officers, armed couriers, detector canine handlers or security canine handlers) 1 vacancy 2 candidates.

(Current member) Corinne M Mastronardi, the owner of Trustus Security Services, an active DCJS licensed business, specializing in private security services business, providing security officers, armed couriers, detector canine handlers or security canine handlers.

Corinne Mastronardi, Esq. is the founder and president of Pro-Rep, Inc., the country's premier agency in professional sports and entertainment representation. Before founding Pro-Rep, Inc., Ms. Mastronardi developed a successful legal practice, the Law Offices of Corinne Mastronardi, P.A., specializing in family, corporate, sports and entertainment law.

Ms. Mastronardi is the Chief Executive Officer of Guardus Security Services. She has over 20 years' experience in the security industry and possesses extensive experience with domestic and international business. Ms. Mastronardi creates, oversees, and implements imperative security policies and protocols, including maintaining compliance with all federal, state, and local ordinances. She has been successful in the leadership of organizations of varying sizes and excels in the areas of private security. She is well-known for her development of security training for hundreds of employees over the years, and she has worked with and trained numerous police agencies statewide as well as the FBI. Her experience has led her to be a leader and teacher to instructors in the security field from security staff to police to Fortune 500 corporations in assessments, team leadership, policy, protocol, active threat, weapons, and many other areas. Ms. Mastronardi has been a member of the PSSAB since 2023 and is currently the Vice Chair. She is seeking reappointment as a Business Representative.

Brendis Urrutia is the compliance agent, director, and owner of Protection Enforcement Agency, a licensed DCJS private security business specializing in private investigation, personal protection specialist and private security services business (providing security officers, armed couriers, detector canine handlers or security canine handlers). Mr. Urrutia has a solid understanding of each client site, the specific needs, and team schedules; completes site tours regularly and meets with the management on a consistent basis; interviews, hires, and trains new associates based on job requirements; ensures job-specific on-the-job training is conducted as per OSHA requirements; monitors performance and any applicable corrective action across all sites.

Mr. Urrutia performs site inspections/audits randomly and confirms that staff is professional, in uniform, as per specifications/contracts indicate. He manages all budgets for each site with a disciplined approach and ensures that all logbooks, timesheets, and tracking are placed at each site, and is responsible for payroll submission. He maintains the highest level of customer focus and retention to ensure consistent satisfaction, and seamless business transitions. Mr. Urrutia is seeking an appointment as a Business Representative.

Electronic Security Business Representative – 2 vacancies 2 candidates

Hicham Sbihi, is the Founder, Owner, and CEO of SHDOW, LLC DBA: SHDOW, LLC, a licensed DCJS electronic security service, locksmith, and security officers/couriers business, specializing in electronic security services. Mr. Sbihi is an experienced and dedicated private security professional and entrepreneur with more than 20 years of experience in private security, sales, management, marketing, and finance. He is a goal driven strategic leader and decisive business professional with a track record of success in start-up of companies. Mr. Sbihi is seeking appointment to the PSSAB as one of the Electronic Security Services Representatives.

James W. Booker is the owner, senior executive and compliance agent of 18 Acres Security Consulting Business, an active DCJS licensed business, specializing in electronic security and private investigation services with over 30 years of experience in the security industry. Throughout his career he demonstrated a unique ability to harmonize organizational goals, foster meaningful connections, and devise and execute security strategies to secure and protect people and assets while gaining and sustaining a competitive advantage across the federal, military, and private sectors. Mr. Booker is seeking appointment to the PSSAB as one of the Electronic Security Services Representatives.

Personal Protection Specialist Representative 1 vacancy 2 candidates

(Current member) Robert L. S. Lamour, owner and compliance agent of ProtectorScope Security Solutions LLC DBA: ProtectorScope Security Solutions, a Private Investigator and Personal Protection Specialist Business. He is a former senior executive law enforcement professional with a proven background in solving complex financial crimes and protecting world leaders. In addition to his formal education and training, his comprehensive experience makes him an excellent candidate to serve as a member of the PSSAB. In each of his professional roles, he has been successful in producing positive results and has a consistent history of advancing shared company goals. Furthermore, his consistent focus on staying abreast with all investigative/security related information, events, and directives, enables him to successfully solve complex cybercrimes and enhance the protection of individuals. In addition to the experience listed on his resume, some of his additional strengths he can leverage to support the private security services throughout Virginia. He possesses 24+ years of experience managing 24/7 responses call to violent and time sensitive operations. He leveraged Tableau, IBM Cognos, and other data aggregation tools to make informed decision. He implemented internal controls reducing expenditures and improving compliance processes. He spearheaded the successful planning and execution of 1500+ security events involving executive protection and event security. Mr. Lamour is seeking reappointment as the Personal Protection Specialist Representative.

Brendis Urrutia is the compliance agent, director, and owner of Protection Enforcement Agency. Please see full bio listed above. Mr. Urratia is seeking appointment as the Personal Protection Specialist Representative.

Locksmith Representative – (2 vacancies 2 candidates)

(Current member) Timothy Chrisman is the owner and compliance agent of Security Lock Service Corp. DBA: Security Lock Service Corp - Locksmith Business since 1994 and School of Lock and Electronic Security. Mr. Chrisman has more than 40 years of experience in the locksmith and private security services industries. He is a graduate of Franklin Jr/Sr High School in Franklin, PA. He served in the United States Airforce as a Carpentry Specialist and as Base Locksmith at Warner Robins AFB, GA. He is completing a one-year term on the PSSAB and seeking reappointment.

William C. Bailey is a registered locksmith and owner of B & B Security Systems, an active DCJS licensed business, specializing in electronic security and locksmith services. After spending spring break and summers in Virginia Beach, he moved here and began working at a beach hospital in the engineering and electronic maintenance department. He was then offered and accepted a position as an electrical engineer with the property management maintenance and security department at a Virginia bank, in downtown Norfolk. He then had an opportunity to join a Class A contractor whose specialty was bank buildings and installation of related banking equipment. He served as the Tidewater field engineering representative. During this time, he also took courses and training to become a certified locksmith. After 10 years of service, Mr. Bailey started his own business in 1990. Mr. Bailey is seeking appointment as one of the locksmith representatives.

Private Investigator Representative – (2 vacancies 6 candidates)

James W. Booker is the owner, senior executive, and compliance agent of 18 Acres Security Consulting Business, an active DCJS licensed business, specializing in electronic security and private investigation services with over 30 years of experience in the security industry. Throughout his career he demonstrated a unique ability to harmonize organizational goals, foster meaningful connections, and devise and execute security strategies to secure and protect people and assets while gaining and sustaining a competitive advantage across the federal, military, and private sectors. He is seeking appointment as one the Private Investigator Representatives.

Matthew Henderson, the founder and owner of HP Investigations, LLC, an active DCJS licensed business, specializing in private investigation. He is a registered Private Investigator. Mr. Henderson spent 34 successful years owning his own printing company before becoming licensed as a Private Investigator, Personal Protection Specialist, and as an Armed Private Security provider. The success of any company begins with the commitment of its owner, and there are none more committed to his craft than Mr. Henderson. Under his guidance, HP Investigations is rated among the top 11 private investigation companies in the Commonwealth of Virginia for 2021 by Expertise.com, an online service that rates companies by reputation and professionalism in more than 200 industries nationwide. Mr. Henderson is the immediate past president of the Virginia Professional Investigators and Security Association (PISA) Board of Directors. He is also an Honorary Member of the Chesterfield County Fraternal Order of Police (FOP). He is seeking appointment as one the Private Investigator Representatives.

Yvette Madison is the owner and compliance agent of Liaison Investigative Services & Technologies LLC an active DCJS licensed business, specializing in private investigation services. She is highly experienced as a Senior Program Manager & Director, with experience leading technical financial focuses teams, professional technical customer solution delivery teams, and enterprise account management. With 18+ years of direct technical experience she has delivered policy and program driven solutions in support of new federal and enterprise commercial business units within the organization. The cybersecurity and operational security needs for customer projects have allowed her to deliver highly monitored KPIs to the executive leadership of the technical organizations she has supported to display qualitative and quantitative results for business objectives and developing and delivering on policy and procedures to sustain these business units and teams in support of the organization. She has been the customer as well as the technical vendor supporting the enterprise security infrastructure with solutions and best practices. She is seeking appointment as one the Private Investigator Representatives.

James Melia is the owner and compliance agent of James River Investigative Solutions LLC, an active DCJS licensed business, specializing in private investigation services. He has a strong background in law enforcement and private investigation. He has dedicated 36 years to the fields of law enforcement, private security, disaster preparedness, and private investigation. Throughout his career he has actively engaged in self-study and networking, allowing him to stay abreast of emerging trends and best practices in the field. His time as administrator in charge of security for three Bon Secours hospitals in the Richmond area exposed him to the challenges facing proprietary security and contract security providers in the Commonwealth of Virginia. He is particularly drawn to the opportunity to represent the private investigators industry perspective on the PSSAB. He is seeking appointment as one the Private Investigator Representatives.

Marshall Ray Wilder, is the owner of Dabney Investigative Group, LLC an active DCJS licensed business, specializing in private investigation. He has worked in a multitude of security-related fields throughout his 30-year career, including federal law enforcement officer for 20+ years and state/local law enforcement officer for 10 years. In these positions, he was responsible to build and lead national-level security programs that ranged from tactical units responsible for day-to-day national security to antiterrorism programs such as the TSA Visible Intermodal Prevention and Response (VIPR) program and Ground-Based Special Mission Coverage program. His experience spans both domestic, as well as global operations. In his current position as President of Dabney Investigative Group and as a registered private investigator, he professionally leverages his 30+ years of broad experience and would appreciate the opportunity to be considered as a candidate to advise the Board on current and future training and regulatory matters in the Virginia private security industry. He is seeking appointment as one the Private Investigator Representatives.

Brendis Urrutia is the Compliance Agent, Director, and Owner of Protection Enforcement Agency. Please see full bio above. Mr. Urratia is seeking appointment as one the Private Investigator Representatives.