Grant Project Description

People Incorporated is the oversight agency for the 28th Judicial District CASA program and is seeking to expand CASA services to the 16th District in Culpeper County. This grant will enable the organization to establish collaborative relationships necessary to recruit CASA volunteers, develop protocols with the juvenile court and agency partners. The project expects to recruit and train an initial class of 8 CASA volunteers who will serve 17 abused and neglected children referred by the juvenile and domestic relations district court judge. The program has a goal of expanding the number of children and volunteers in subsequent years.
