

Thinking outside of the box

Building Partnerships & Finding Resources for Crime Prevention Programs

1

About Me

Been in Law Enforcement since 1999.

Former First Sergeant with the Spotsylvania Sheriff's Office.

Currently Chief of Police with the Town of Middleburg Police Department.

2

Goals and Objectives

Understand how to identify and secure funding for programs

Learn how to build strong community and interagency partnerships

Explore creative strategies for resourcing your crime prevention efforts

Discuss real-life examples of programs that I was involved with and their impact

3

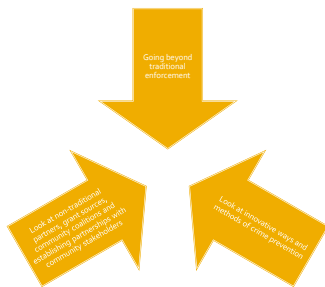

DISCLAIMER

- Every community is unique.

- What works in one town, city or county may not be effective in another.
- Tailor your crime prevention strategies to meet the specific needs culture and dynamics of your community.
- There's no one-size-fits-all solution-do what works best for your community.

Think Outside the Box- What does it Mean?

5

Things to Remember

What works for some will not work for all.

What works in larger locations might not work in smaller locations.

Support might not always be in the form of money

Could be equipment.

Could be volunteers.

Know your area and what works for your area.

6

Special Olympics

How many of you and your agency participate in Special Olympic Events?

What events do you participate in?

How do you fundraise for Special Olympics?
