Grant Project Description

The goal of this project is to provide victim-centered, trauma-informed victim advocacy services to victims of crime that are identified through investigations and prosecutions conducted by Assistant Attorneys General (AAG). In order to fulfill that goal, the following objectives must be met: 1) Employ a Victim Assistance Advocate that will work with AAGs to identify all victims and witnesses associated with OAG cases to ensure they are either linked with a local victim witness program, or directly provided services and rights delineated by law and best practice. 2) The Victim Assistance Advocate will coordinate with, or directly provide, services to the victims and witnesses in OAG-lead cases in collaboration and cooperation with local victim assistance resources. 3) The OAG will evaluate the results of services provided, identify gaps, and adjust service provision and/or protocols as necessary.

The Virginia Department of Corrections (VADOC) Victim Services Unit (VSU) is applying to expand direct services to crime victims whose offenders are in the custody and under the supervision of VADOC. As explained in the Problem Statement/Needs Assessment section, VADOC has over 11,000 victims registered with the VSU and is currently unable to provide services to crime victims once an offender is released from a correctional facility or under community supervision, with only limited capacity for those whose offender is in custody. In order to ensure that victims receive adequate services and to prepare for offender reentry, VADOC is requesting 6 new positions, 5 of which will serve as regional victim advocates and 1 to serve as a victim impact advocate.

The Goal of this project is to provide language interpreter/translator services to Limited English Proficient (LEP) family, friends, and next of kin of decedents whose deaths come under the jurisdiction of the Office of the Chief Medical Examiner (OCME) pursuant to § 32.1-283. Assistance with language services will improve the information, process, and outcomes of death investigations; facilitate a process whereby crime victims can be more readily identified after death; and therefore support determinations of cause and manner of death. The goal of the proposed project is to develop capacity in Virginia's medical examiner system to serve decedents and families with LEP by developing and maintaining an LEP assistance program in the OCME.

Grant Project Description

Help and Emergency Response, Inc. (H.E.R. Shelter) is requesting funds to support the enhancement and expansion of services to victims of domestic violence, sexual assault, and human trafficking through the New Initiative Victim Assistance Grant Program. The goal of this request is to provide street outreach to victims of crime who would not normally access traditional services or use the legal system and to assist them in becoming economically stable after victimization. This request will support the new street outreach program for victims to be integrated in to services they would not have accessed previously. Furthermore, this program will provide a new focus on long term stabilization to those who are financially vulnerable and access to trauma counseling and treatment.

Grant Project Description

This project involves having two (2) Victim To Victim Retreats each year, each consisting of three (3) phases. Phase I is a five (5) day, four (4) night intense peer to peer sessions where the six (6) attendees receive guidance and tools to enable them to cope with their daily lives after having been victims of sexual assault. The sessions are led by two (2) victims who have been able to cope with their own trauma and now on a peer to peer basis, share with those attending. Phase II involves the original attendees and someone they bring whom they wish to walk the healing path with them. This is a one day session which focuses mainly on the support person. Phase III includes all attendees and support persons for a one day review and revise session. This all occurs over the period of one year. There is regular follow up over the course of the next two (2) years. There is no cost to those attending.

This project will provide Victim Support Navigators to assist child victims of abuse (sexual, physical, exploitation and/or trafficking) and their caregivers in their home and other community settings, helping to bring advocacy and support service and overcome the vast geographic barriers that exist to traditional site based services. The project will also expand the forensic interviewing program to bring highly specialized services to child victims from surrounding jurisdictions in Southwest Virginia that do not have access to child advocacy centers. Projects also seeks to build community capacity to recognize and respond to child abuse through increased public awareness.

Grant Project Description

The applicant plans to deliver free short-term crisis intervention, safety planning, information, referral assistance, and other basic services to victims taking the initial steps to break the cycle of violence. Additionally, the applicant describes a need to provide clients with long-term assistance and ongoing support to promote transition from being in crisis to becoming empowered to put an end their abuse. Victims remain vulnerable to recurring incidents of violence until the need for long-term guidance and emotional support are met. The Women's Center proposes addressing these issues by expanding Break the Cycle Program's short-term services to incorporate long-term, no-charge coordinated advocacy care and social-connection support groups that foster empowerment and development of trusted connections.
