Grant Project Description

Improve the response of Arlington's Project PEACE (APP)-CCR/SART to the crimes of domestic and sexual violence against women by developing a Sexual Assault and Domestic Violence Response Protocol and quarterly training curriculum. The protocol and training will ensure that APP SART and CCR meet the needs of victims/survivors using best practices, have shared understanding of lethality risks, clear roles and responsibilities and hold offenders accountable. This project will impact an estimated average of 1,376 adults and 937 children per year who are survivors of SA/DV.

Grant Project Description

The Council of Community Services (CCS) is requesting funds from the VSTOP grant to develop a Coordinated Community Response Team (CCRT) and strengthen the Sexual Assault Response Team (SART) for addressing and responding to domestic violence (sexual assault, intimate partner violence, and stalking) across the Roanoke Valley. The development of the CCR/SART will give service providers/system members an opportunity to develop protocols and procedures, evaluate existing programming, identify and address gaps in services, and promote victim safety and community education. The CCR/SART will allow medical personnel, law enforcement, service providers, clergy, legal aid, victim advocates, and others to work together to increase community awareness and safety, protection, and response to violence.

Grant Project Description

The Fairfax County Police Department is requesting DCJS grant funds to conduct four regional trainings on law enforcement's and victim service advocate's response to sexual assault, domestic violence, and human trafficking for approximately 200 law enforcement officers, victim advocates, and prosecutors between October 1, 2017 and June 30, 2018. Training topics will include trauma informed interviewing, neurobiology of trauma, sexual assault dynamics, techniques for investigation and prosecution, adolescent sexual assaults, gender bias, and trauma informed interviewing. Fairfax County and surrounding jurisdictions will participate in this advanced training that is essential to educating those involved with victim's issues.

Grant Project Description

Gloucester County is requesting V-STOP funds to conduct a regional training on evidence-based investigation and prosecution of strangulation and trauma-informed care for about 65 law enforcement, prosecutors, magistrates, forensic nurse examiners, and victim advocates between October 2017 and June 2018. After the training, Gloucester County will draft policy as it relates to response and support of strangulation victims. The goal of our proposed project is to increase arrests, prosecution, and victim safety in strangulation cases by training and educating partners within the criminal justice system to use evidence based procedures to identify, document, prosecute, and provide trauma-informed support to victims of strangulation.

Grant Project Description

We are seeking funds to develop training policies, create a training curricula, and provide training that provides prosecutors with the specialized knowledge required to: (1) provide trauma-informed services to our victims of violent crimes against women, (2) more effectively identify and respond to violent crimes against women, and (3) handle the particularized legal obstacles that are involved in the prosecution of cases involving violent crimes against women. This training will improve the services provided to the over 1,500 victims of violence against women our office prosecutes a year. The funds will also be used to develop and offer training to law enforcement, judges, and the community.

Grant Project Description

The City of Portsmouth Violence Against Women - Virginia Services, Training Officers Prosecution grant will provide comprehensive information and direct prosecutorial services to victims of violent crimes against women, specifically targeting violent crimes against women, including crimes of sexual assault, dating violence, stalking and domestic violence. Current, under the purview of The Honorable Stephanie N. Morales, Portsmouth Commonwealth's Attorney's office would like to reinvigorate the VSTOP grant. This program will provide comprehensive information to those victims in accordance with the 1994 Violence Against Women Act as a part of the Violent Crime Control and Law Enforcement Act. During October 1, 2017-June 30, 2018, it is estimated the program will provide direct services to 725 victims. We estimate 500 volunteer hours to be provided FY 2018.
