Project Performance to Date (if Continuation)

Virginia Beach CASA served 169 children in FY17 with a total of 68 volunteer advocates. The program reported 99% of volunteer recommendations made to the court on behalf of child victims informed court orders. The program has met established program targets. The program will experience a reduction in federal funds which was anticipated due to the transition in administration of VOCA funds by DCJS and formula awards. The program received a "hold harmless" award for two years in anticipation of the reduction.
