Grant Project Description

SASP funding helps fund our Bilingual Specialist, who is the staff member providing support to our Spanish-speaking clients. While this grant covers just over twenty-five percent of her time working with Hispanic/Latino clients, funding is vital to her providing services for 30 individuals experiencing some form of sexual assault crisis. We anticipate those numbers staying the same for CY 2021. This is a busy position providing individual and group support, referrals, education, court advocacy and hospital accompaniment for initial forensic exams. Her positive impact in the lives of this underserved population is a direct result of SASP funding. Additionally, we are looking to expand our services in response to a need in the community specifically for bilingual sexual assault support groups.

The Collins Center service area encompasses rurally-isolated persons and an extensive community of refugees, Immigrants, and first-generation families with limited English proficiency and varying cultural norms. Our current service demographics do not fully reflect the community. During 2021, Collins Center is requesting funding to develop and distribute community-based, culturally-specific resource guides to 2,500 primary and collateral victims of sexual violence. These guides would contain linguistically accessible referrals for victim services through Collins Center and a comprehensive list of community partners with organizational capacity and trauma-informed practices to address immediate and long-term needs of primary and collateral victims of sexual violence.

Grant Project Description

This project is focused on YWCA Richmond and the Greater Richmond Regional Collaborative to End Domestic and Sexual Violence's Crisis Response Services. This proposal is for salary funds for the new position of Crisis Response Services Manager and for hospital accompaniment PRN (as needed) coverage. Our Crisis Response Services include our Regional Hospital Accompaniment Response Team (RHART) and our Greater Richmond Regional Hotline.

Project Performance to Date (if Continuation)

No current CY 2020 grant. Previous grants were satisfactory.

Staff Recommendation/Comments

Not recommended for funding. This program was not recommended for funding because it was unclear whether the project was aligned with the purpose of the grant program. Additionally, it was unclear whether the request was for one position or multiple positions, and there was no plan in identifying SA services separately from DV services.
