Grant Project Description

VDSS will provide administrative oversight to the Child Advocacy Centers program for FY22. Eighteen existing CACS and one new CAC in Prince William County will provide allowable services to support victims of child abuse and neglect across the Commonwealth of Virginia. The administrative position at VDSS provides administrative services, fiscal management, and monitoring oversight to ensure that CACs adhere to federal and state funding regulations - and works with CACVA (statewide association of CACs) to provide technical assistance to CACs, assist with conference planning, determine funding allocations based on the formula stipulated by the General Assembly, and ensure that all CACs adhere to national accreditation standards.

Project Performance to Date (if Continuation)

VOCA funds are requested to support allowable services to victims of child abuse and neglect via 18 existing and one new Child Advocacy Center (CAC); an administrative position at VDSS, a statewide CAC conference convened by CACVA.
