Grant Project Description

The CCCA Program is a community-based supervision agency used for the primary purpose of providing sentencing alternatives utilizing evidenced based practices for misdemeanants and non-violent felons in lieu of incarceration. The Pretrial Services Program performs two crucial functions:

1. Gathering and presenting information about newly arrested defendants and about available release options for use by a judicial officer in making decisions concerning a defendant's pretrial custody or release status.
2. Supervising defendants who are released from custody during the pretrial period by monitoring their compliance with release conditions and by helping to ensure they appear for scheduled court appearances and do not endanger community safety.

This agency provides Probation and Pre-trial services for the GDC, Circuit and J&DR Courts in Fairfax County. The Supervision Units in GDC and J&DR provide probation and pretrial services. Probation services give the judicial system sentencing alternatives for misdemeanor offenders for whom the court may impose a jail sentence. Community probation helps to relieve jail overcrowding by making jail beds available for more serious offenders while the protection of the community is provided through monitoring and supervision. Pretrial services provide intake and pretrial supervision through the SRP program. This program provides community supervision for defendants released under special conditions by the judiciary.

Grant Project Description

Pursuant to VA Code § 9.1-173, this project will continue to enable the City of Petersburg and County of Dinwiddie to maintain a local community-based probation services agency providing the judicial system with sentencing alternatives for certain adult misdemeanants or persons convicted of non-violent felonies; to reduce harm, recidivism, and provide alternatives to incarceration. The project also provides pretrial services in both localities. PT services conduct risk assessments, make recommendations to judicial officials about court appearance and community harm pending trial, provide defendant supervision, ensure compliance with conditions of release, and impact jail overcrowding and costs. Both programs contribute to public safety.
