

Trauma Response and the Criminal Justice System: A Virtual Summit on Knowledge, Healing, and Resilience

After the Crime: Ensuring Trauma-Informed, Victim-Centered Services

This presentation will focus on trauma-informed, victim centered recovery efforts following a criminal mass casualty event. The presenters will discuss how the Virginia Crisis Response Team deploys following traumatic events to assist and ensure that the short and long term needs of victims are being met. The presenter will discuss codified requirements of local emergency management agencies, the resources available to victims and localities, and lessons learned from the crisis response efforts, to include the Virginia Beach mass shooting in May 2019.

Presenter: Julia Fuller-Wilson

Julia Fuller-Wilson is the State Crisis Response Coordinator at the Virginia Department of Criminal Justice Services. Julia has over 24 years of experience in the field of victim services. She currently manages and coordinates state crisis response efforts to victims following criminal mass casualty events. She has been a member of the Virginia State Crisis Response Team since 2009 and is certified as a NOVA trainer for Crisis Response. She has responded to the 5th Annual Remembrance of Virginia Tech, the Smith Mountain Lake shootings, the New River Community College shootings, the Washington County familicide, the Charlottesville Unite the Right aftermath, and the Virginia Beach mass shooting, amongst others.

Julia received a B.S. in Sociology and Psychology from Charleston Southern University and a Master's in Social Work, with a concentration in Social Work Administration and Policy Practice, from Virginia Commonwealth University.