

Grant Programs Monitoring Tool

Division of Programs and Services

1/22/2019

Monitoring is the process of reviewing, with staff of a grant-funded project, the project’s implementation, activities, performance and expenditures to determine if it is operating as proposed in the approved grant application and in accordance with grant requirements, conditions, as well as any applicable regulatory requirements, and to identify any technical assistance needs of the grant recipient. Monitoring may include review of the fiscal and programmatic aspects of a grant-funded project. The term “monitoring” is used to describe both the broad overall system of reviewing and tracking the use of federal and state funds, and the more specific day-to-day review processes to assure that a particular sub-grantee is in compliance with federal or state rules and regulations, and is meeting the goals and objectives of the grant.

Please note this tool is designed to be printed and used during the site visit along with additional materials including documents to support program activities. DCJS staff will provide staff with a list of documents that will be reviewed prior to the visit. Obtaining and reviewing documentation that supports program activities and expenditures is a requirement of conducting an on-site visit. Documentation consists of any hard copy or electronic documents, including invoices, policies and procedures, logs, timesheets, etc., that provide evidence that an activity or expenditure reported by the grantee actually occurred. The length of a site visit varies and is based on many factors, including the number and complexity of awards being monitored, the nature of the program(s), and the analysis of variables that inhibit a grant program from being in compliance and auditable according to all appropriate federal and state grant provisions. DCJS advises that most site visits can be completed, on average, between three to five hours. The grant monitor will then have 90 days from the end of the site visit to complete site visit documentation, including post-site visit letters.

Instructions:

Section I. General Information

Site Visit Information: A single Monitoring Tool may be used for the review of multiple grants under a grant program or grantee, or for a specific grant. If multiple grants are being reviewed in one site visit, all grants must be listed in Section I below under “Grant Information.”

Grantee: Mental Health America of VA	Site Visit Date: 10/29/2020
Grant Monitor: Chrissy Wengloski	Staff Present: Bruce Crusier, Jenny Sappington, Anna Mendez, Sheila Crowley

Grant Information: List each grant being reviewed during this on-site monitoring

Grant Number	Program	Project Period	Award Amount
21-B4772VP19	VSGP	July1, 2020 – June 30, 2021
20-A4722VP18	VSGP	July 1, 2019 – June 30, 2020

Section II. Interview

Record the names and titles of those attending the site visit as well as the date of the meeting in the table below.

Grantee Name	Title	Date
Bruce Cruser	ED	10/29/2020
Jenny Sappington	Outreach coordinator	11/10/2020

Interview Notes:

Discussed changes in project due to COVID-19 restrictions on in-person work. Found that project was still continuing by transitioning in-person retreats to virtual, and attending virtual conferences to conduct outreach. Also coming up with creative ways to reach victims, such as posting journaling prompts on social media to help work through trauma. Project director and Executive Director are passionate about project and attentive to grant management requirements.

Section III. Administrative Review

The administrative review consists of File Review and Personnel Review. If documentation is missing or an issue is found in any grant under review, the grant number and issue should be noted under “Issues Found and Documentation Collected/Supporting Notes,” including issues that require further documentation.

Administrative Review: File Review	Yes	No	TA Provided	N/A	Documentation/Procedures to Review, if applicable	Issues Found and Documentation Collected/Supporting Notes
1. Are the grantee’s files complete and is all information current?	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	Review the grantee’s award files for the current grant year and past 3 grant years to ensure they have the following documents, if applicable. <input type="checkbox"/> Signed award document <input type="checkbox"/> Special Conditions

					<input type="checkbox"/> Progress Reports <input type="checkbox"/> Financial Reports <input type="checkbox"/> Approved Application (budget, narratives, and other required documentation) <input type="checkbox"/> Budget Amendment (s)
2. Is property information being maintained, if applicable?	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	Review record of inventory and observe the actual inventory. <input type="checkbox"/> Purchase orders <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Invoices, serial numbers, and/or proof of purchase <input type="checkbox"/> Liquidation policy
If the approved award budget includes salary and fringe benefit costs, ensure that adequate payroll and time and attendance records are maintained. Review payroll and time and attendance records for each grant for the last three to six pay periods and determine if these documents adequately support the costs for salaries and fringe benefits charged to the grant. These records should clearly identify the specific project or programs worked on by each grant funded employee.

3. Are key personnel performing duties as originally proposed?	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	Through discussion, observations, and review of documentation, verify that key personnel identified in the project are actually working on the project and that any changes have been approved. Verify that you have reviewed and conducted the following activities: <input type="checkbox"/> Grant application <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Interview key personnel <input type="checkbox"/> Civil Rights Training /Compliance <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Confidentiality Policy <input type="checkbox"/> Release of Information
4. Are actual hours worked accurately recorded on timesheets?	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	Have the grantee provide time sheets from the most recent three to six pay periods for its grant-funded employees. The time sheets should report 100% of the employee's time, and actual hours worked on the award project. If the employee is funded by multiple sources, time sheets should reflect

					distribution of time. Timesheets should be signed (either in writing or electronically) by the employee and/or supervisor.
5. Are personnel charges in line with what was proposed in the approved budget?	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	Review personnel timesheets to ensure that charges related to staffing are in line with the proposed budget using the following documents: <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Personnel timesheets <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Approved budget <input type="checkbox"/> Overtime approval documentation	Timesheets are detailed and include employee's signature.
6. Does the grantee maintain documents supporting approved/awarded expenditures?	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	Have the grantee provide cumulative budget to actual amounts for each approved budget category, as of the most recent quarter end. This will be in the form of a general ledger or in some cases a manual spreadsheet. Review the most recent auditor certification of fiscal responsibility letter.	Expenditures documented with invoices and receipts, check requests, percentages charged to the grant are outlined on documentation

Administrative Notes:

The following questions are developed to guide the financial review of the grant project

7. Is the grantee able to track budget to actual expenditure amounts per approved budget category or spending plan?	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	Have the grantee provide cumulative budget to actual amounts for each approved budget category, as of the most recent quarter end. This will be in the form of a general ledger or in some cases a manual spreadsheet.	Yes, expenses are all coded individually
8. Does the grantee maintain documents supporting detailed expenditures made within each grant budget cost category?	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	Select a sample of expenditures for several quarterly periods and review supporting documentation. Request that grantee provide proper documentation for each expenditure in the form of purchase invoice, vendor receipt, payroll register, time card, dates of training, description of training, etc.	Payroll, receipts, time cards all align.
9. Do the grantee expenditures seem reasonable and allowable?	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	Request a sample of expenditures by budget category and review to determine if they are allowable and reasonable	Yes.
10. If grant has a required match, is the grantee using cash or in-kind funding? If in-kind, ask grantee for supporting documents.	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	If the grantee is using cash match, the grantee would be able to account for this in their accounting records. If in-kind match, documentation may include such things as a sign-in sheet that tracks volunteer hours, office space, and/or equipment space donated	Supporting documentation included for personnel-based in-kind match.

Financial Review Notes:

Section IV. Programmatic Review

Programmatic monitoring includes reviewing the content and substance of the grant program. It also involves a qualitative and quantitative review to determine whether grant activities are consistent with the grant implementation plan and the grant goals and objectives stated in the original application. Programmatic monitoring also involves assessing technical assistance (TA) needs and assessing the implementation of projects and/or suggesting any necessary modifications.

In general, grantees should be able to provide documentation for performance measures reported and for major activities conducted, such as training offered or groups held, that support the program’s goals and objectives. In such instances, a log of attendees and date/location of training or group should be obtained. On occasion, grants may contain a special condition requiring that the grantee fulfill a requirement, such as attending training. In such cases, grantees should also provide documentation that the requirement was fulfilled, if not already documented in GMIS.

Administrative Review/File Review	YES	NO	TA Provided	N/A	Documentation/Procedures to Review, if applicable	Issues Found and Documentation Collected/ Supporting Notes
11. Is the project site where one or more activities/deliverables are being performed? If no, note where activities are being performed.	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
12. Can the grantee identify the performance measures they are required to collect?	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	For each service/activity described in submitted progress reports, the grantee must provide evidence that supports the information reported.	Program staff are very aware of their goals and have been working to meet them despite the challenges of COVID-19.
13. As a result of your observations or discussions with grantee, are you able to validate that project goals and objectives (activities) being implemented as planned? Please note delays in implementation and reasons cited by grantee.	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	Examples of evidence could be logs of services provided with date, location, and recipients noted, sign in sheets for training or focus groups, list of taskforce or steering committee members, etc. For each performance measure, the grantee must provide evidence that supports the information reported.	Yes, included survey results from virtual retreat.
14. Did you observe or were you made aware of changes in the grant project? If so, were these changes allowable? Did the grantee follow procedures to request the change?	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>		Yes, changes to virtual programming were still within project scope

15. Can the grantee explain how their performance measurement data is collected? What type of data is collected, who provides the data, who collects it and how often, and where is it stored? (In other words, what is the grantee's system for collecting and reporting data?) Can you verify that the reported performance data is valid and is being collected properly?	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	Check that grantee has an adequate method for collecting performance measurement data. Adequacy can be assessed by checking to see that consistent procedures are used, whether they are based on a proven model, and whether safeguards are in place to protect performance data integrity (i.e back up of data is the responsibility of the grantee).
