Flowchart To Determine if a Juvenile is in a Secure Custody Status in an Adult Jail or Lockup

1. Is the area where the juvenile is held located within a larger secure perimeter?
   - YES →
   - NO →

2. Is the area where the juvenile is held an unlocked multipurpose area, such as a lobby, office, or interrogation room?
   - YES →
   - NO →

3. Is the area where the juvenile is held ever designated, set aside, or used as a secure detention area?
   - YES →
   - NO →

4. Is the juvenile physically secured to a cuffing rail or other stationary object?
   - YES →
   - NO →

5. Is the area where the juvenile is held designed or intended to be used for residential purposes?
   - YES →
   - NO →

6. Is the area where the juvenile is held sight and sound separated from incarcerated adults?
   - YES →
   - NO →

7. Is the use of the area limited to providing nonsecure custody only long enough and for the purposes of identification, investigation, processing, release to parents, or arranging transfer to a juvenile facility or to court?
   - YES →
   - NO →

8. Is the juvenile sight and sound separated from incarcerated adults?
   - YES →
   - NO →

9. Is the juvenile under continuous visual supervision by a law enforcement officer or facility staff during the period of time that he or she is in nonsecure custody?
   - YES →
   - NO →

10. Does the facility contain delayed egress devices?
    - YES →
    - NO →

11. Is the delay greater than 30 seconds?
    - YES →
    - NO →

12. Have the devices received written approval from the local authority having jurisdiction over fire codes and fire inspections?
    - YES →
    - NO →

Juvenile is in a Secure Custody Status

Juvenile is in a non-secure Custody status