

LIMITED RECIPROCITY AGREEMENT
FOR PRIVATE INVESTIGATIONS

STATE OF FLORIDA, DEPARTMENT OF STATE,
DIVISION OF LICENSING

AND

STATE OF VIRGINIA,
VIRGINIA DEPARTMENT OF CRIMINAL JUSTICE SERVICES

WHEREAS, the State of Florida, Department of State, Division of Licensing and State of Virginia, Virginia Department of Criminal Justice Services (herein "Parties") desire to enter an agreement for the granting of a limited reciprocal licensure exemption for the mutual benefit of their citizens.

WHEREAS, the legal authority to enter this agreement is conferred upon the Parties by their respective state's statutes found at Section 493.6109, Florida Statutes, and the Code of Virginia, Section 9-182.B.

WHEREAS, each Party's education, examination, and/or experience requirements for the licensing and registration of private investigators and private investigation agencies are satisfactory to the other party as applicable to their respective statutes.

NOW THEREFORE, it is agreed that a resident or a sole proprietorship, partnership, corporation, or other similar business entity of Florida or Virginia who is/are currently licensed as private investigator or private investigative agency by his/her/its state of residence, may be granted a limited reciprocal licensure exemption from the licensing requirements of the reciprocating state.

The exemption is only available to:

1. Private investigators or private investigative agencies who is/are licensed by the reciprocating state and whose license(s) are good standing with the reciprocating state.
2. Private investigators and private investigative agencies, qualified per paragraph 1 above, who enter the reciprocating state to conduct private investigations only if the private investigation originated in their home state. Furthermore, investigation in the reciprocating state is limited to thirty days per agency per case. Investigations exceeding thirty days must be handled by a licensed private investigation agency in the reciprocating state. The exemption does not authorize private investigators or private investigative agencies to solicit private investigative business in the reciprocating state or to conduct private investigative business in the reciprocating state other than as specifically stated in this paragraph.

FURTHERMORE, the Parties agree that:

- (a) All individuals exempted under this agreement be affiliated with a properly licensed private investigative agency;
- (b) An irrevocable consent that service of process, in any complaint or disciplinary action filed against the applicant arising out of the applicant's private investigative activities in the reciprocating state may be made by the delivery of such process on the administrator of the private investigation regulatory agency in his/her/its state of residence.

(c) This agreement may be terminated by either party upon thirty (30) days written notice.

IN WITNESS HERETO, the Agencies have caused this agreement to be executed by their respective officers, State of Florida, Department of State, Division of Licensing and State of Virginia, Virginia Department of Criminal Justice Services.
