July 26, 2022

Dear School Safety Leader:

On behalf of Governor Glenn Youngkin, Secretary of Public Safety and Homeland Security, Sheriff Bob Mosier, the Virginia Department of Criminal Justice Services, and the Virginia Center for School and Campus Safety, it is my pleasure to welcome you to the 2022 School Safety Training Forum: Prevention, Relationships, and Support: Keys to Ensuring Safe Schools, Students, and Staff.

This year's theme illustrates that school safety is achievable when we work together toward our common goals. Through new initiatives like the digital mapping program, suicide prevention and threat assessment PSAs, and a continued strengthening of our relationships with students, staff – and each other, we can create a brighter 2023. We are committed to partnering with you in those efforts and to highlighting ways to thrive in today's world.

Bringing together professionals from a broad range of disciplines and backgrounds to focus on the safety and security of Virginia's school systems in this way is imperative. You and over 900 attendees from the fields of law enforcement, PreK-12 division and school administration, mental health, and counseling – have joined us here in Hampton to get rejuvenated for a new school year. The keynotes and workshops in this year's program represent the plethora of resources within reach to you. It is through new ideas and connections that we can move the needle forward in each of our respective areas.

My colleagues and I are truly grateful to you for being here and for the ongoing work you do. We are honored to partner with the Virginia Department of Education, the Office of the Attorney General, and the D.A.R.E. Association to bring you this opportunity. We also appreciate the presenters who have lent their time and expertise to ensure that the next several days are time well spent.

Should you need anything during your stay in Hampton or after you return home, please know that we stand ready to support you and your efforts at making schools safer for all students. Enjoy the conference!

Sincerely,

11:30 AM–12:00 PM Grand Ballrooms ABCDEFGH	Especially Safe for Virginia Michele Gay, Co-Founder, Safe and Sound Schools Mother, educator, and co-founder of Safe and Sound Schools, Michele Gay chose to take action after losing her daughter Josephine Grace on December 14, 2012 in the Sandy Hook School tragedy. Since that time, Ms. Gay has channeled her love for Josephine into her work as an advocate for improving safety and security in schools and communities across our country. This passion most recently inspired Safe and Sound's Especially Safe Planning & Preparation Guide. She will share the relevancy of this Guide in planning for the safety of all students and its practical activities for increasing empowerment and building a positive culture of safety within your school community. Along with additional newly developed resources, this program has been adapted to Virginia's students and is designed to help safety planning teams address the safety and security needs of all members of the community. Through inclusive planning, we can create a culture of safety and security for our children, students, parents, and staff to rely on in emergencies of all kinds.

AGENDA || DAY TWO – WEDNESDAY (7/27/22)

8:15–8:30 AM Grand Ballrooms ABCDEFG	D.A.R.E. Awards Virginia D.A.R.E. Association Board
8:30–9:30 AM Grand Ballrooms ABCDEFG	How to Build Digital Trust and Safety at School Kim Karr, Executive Director and Co-Founder, #ICANHELP Over the past few years, technology has often created a rift between students and schools. These digital devices have increasingly become integrated into a student's life, but can often do more harm than good. Harmful TikTok® challenges (such as the Devious Lick), school shooting threats, and even fake pages or 'finsta' pages have had an increase to aid in anonymity online. Students often don't know how to report or are afraid to report what they see online, even to teachers, due to a lack of trust and fear that they will be the ones punished for the report. By learning how to use digital technology responsibly, teachers will have the ability to respond and investigate cyberbullying, harassment, slander, and more with a new understanding and greater empathy towards their students.
9:30–9:45 AM	Break
9:45–10:45 AM Grand Ballrooms ABCDEFG	Hidden, High, and Hammered Beth Sanborn, DPA, School Resource Officer and Juvenile Detective Communication between all invested stakeholders is essential to the development of children. Each of us possess a critical puzzle piece in identifying the complete picture of a teen. By assembling all of these pieces, we are able to better identify a child who may be struggling or who may fall victim to a crisis. These indicators are in front of us, but often so difficult to see until we know what to look for. As such, these poor lifestyle choices may be hidden right in front of us. Hidden, High, and Hammered grew from the Mock Teen Room. Stash devices (Hidden) are shown to illustrate commonplace items meant to deceive and conceal. Marijuana and its associated paraphernalia (High) are exhibited to showcase THC in its current forms. Also included are vapes, vape paraphernalia, CBD products, and products/logos indicative of the drug culture. Alcohol products (Hammered) marketed toward younger demographics are presented. The demonstration culminates with a challenge to identify items in a game of "Booze or No Booze."
10:45–11:00 AM	Break
11:00 AM–12:00 PM Grand Ballrooms ABCDEFG	Black Swan John Michael Keyes, Executive Director, I Love U Guys Foundation This stems from the old belief that all swans were white, and was used in reference to something impossible. When black swans were discovered in Southern Australia, the meaning changed. It's now used to refer to an improbable event. Black Swan events can be both negative and positive; John-Michael Keyes connects the violent incident at Platte Canyon High School with the Black Swan Theory. The aftermath is also in that category; how the outcomes and programs of The "I Love U Guys" Foundation are unpredictably positive.

AGENDA || DAY THREE – THURSDAY (7/28/22)

8:30–9:30 AM Grand Ballrooms ABCDEFG	Overview of Current and Upcoming Initiatives DCJS Public Safety Training and the Virginia Center for School and Campus Safety Staff On any given day at the DCJS Public Safety Training and the Virginia Center for School and Campus Safety there are resources, trainings, and conferences being planned, grants being given, research being done, and programs being developed. This session will provide an overview of what’s coming to a locality near you – including Federal grant projects, public service announcements (PSAs), the school safety audit, new legislation, and the anxiously awaited case management tool. <hr/> Digital School Mapping: Virginia’s Next Frontier in School Safety Mike Rogers, CEO, Critical Response Group Paper and one-dimensional digital maps are obsolete for today’s school emergencies. When law enforcement and other emergency first responders arrive on scene at a school to respond to an active attacker or a fire or medical emergency, seconds count. On April 25, 2022, Governor Glenn Youngkin issued a press release announcing the availability of $6.5 million in funding to support school safety through the Virginia Department of Criminal Justice Services (DCJS) Digital Mapping Program for Virginia K-12 Schools. A summary of the Collaborative Response Graphics® (CRGs) technology and the grant program will be provided during this keynote.
9:30–10:30 AM	The Backpack: One Story from the Boston Marathon Mario Millett, Detective Lieutenant, Gang Unit Commander (Retired), Massachusetts State Police On April 15, 2013, during one of the country’s most celebrated marathons, two backpacks containing pressure cookers that had been converted into bombs were strategically placed amongst the crowds of onlookers then detonated. The explosions would forever change the community of Boston, and the fugitive hunt and investigations to follow would present several unforeseen challenges for law enforcement. This keynote will offer one person’s unique perspective of the Boston Marathon Bombing investigation and the importance of tempering the effects of trauma during an intensive search and in the midst of a critical undercover operation.
10:30–10:45 AM	Break
10:45–11:45 AM Grand Ballrooms ABCDEFG	From Victim to Valor: How to Support the Transition from Victim to Survivor and Beyond Kara Robinson Chamberlain, Survivor and Victim Advocate This keynote begins with Kara Robinson Chamberlain’s story of survival, inspiration, and motivation, which is then utilized to demonstrate how your words have power in helping victims become survivors.
11:45 AM Grand Ballrooms ABCDEFG	Wrap Up Donna Michaelis, Division Director, Public Safety Training and the Virginia Center for School and Campus Safety, Virginia Department of Criminal Justice Services
12:00 PM	Conference concludes
